The American Revolution was a colonial revolt that took place between 1765 and 1783. The American Patriots in the Thirteen Colonies won independence from Great Britain, becoming the United States of America. They defeated the British in the American Revolutionary War (1775–1783) in alliance with France and others. Members of American colonial society argued the position of "no taxation ...

Day 5. Bible. Read Mark 5. The woman who was bleeding, what did she believe? Where was her faith? (answer: She believed that she would be healed if she could just touch Jesus's™ clothes. And she was. She was scared to be found out because her bleeding made her "unclean" by Jewish law and if she touched someone, she would make them "unclean.")

Media and Elections. The media are essential to democracy, and a democratic election is impossible without media. A free and fair election is not only about the freedom to vote and the knowledge of how to cast a vote, but also about a participatory process where voters engage in public debate and have adequate information about parties, policies, candidates and the election process itself in ...
