We can measure various physical constants in distant galaxies, looking back around 11-12 billion years. Generally, the constant everyone tries to measure is the Fine Structure Constant.

OT71: I Don't Open Things | Slate Star Codex

The theory of evolution proposes an explanation for how life in general and mankind in particular arose. It holds that that there was a long period in which natural processes gave rise to life and to the different life forms on earth. This in no way conflicts with the idea of God. As the omnipotent ...
